✓ PINES UP AND PALMS DOWN ✓

The first part of this travelogue shows a trip through the Everglades of Florida and a visit to a Seminole Indian village - here we see a Seminole thatching his bridal roof-tree with palm leaves, a Seminole fire which is unique in its spoke-like arrangement of logs; an Indian girl pounding corn in the same old mortar her grandmother used, while only a few feet away an Indian woman is using an up-to-date sewing machine.

The last part of the picture shows a trip through the Land of the Moose. The party starts from the little town of Amos through the woods of upper Quebec, finishing a tough portage and finally paddling down a beautiful stream where they see the moose feeding on lily roots and bathing in the cool waters.
